

Appetite Gone

Your strength is failing; what little you eat distresses you; you are bilious, have headache, backache, feel blue and melancholy, and can get no rest or sleep. It is a case of unstrung nerves.

Dr. Miles' Nerve is prepared for just such conditions, and seldom fails, because it soothes irritated nerves, and assists the nerve cells to generate nerve energy.

"I was weak, nervous, had no appetite, no ambition, was nervous and easily excited. Doctors gave no relief. I began taking Dr. Miles' Nerve, and am now perfectly well. Less than $10 cured me."

Death of Albert Fournier.

Albert, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Nazair Fournier, of Johnson, N. H., passed away at his home, June 13, at 6 o'clock, after a period of nearly five weeks of intense suffering, caused by the accident which befell him while at his work in the mill, where he had been employed for several months. Every thing that medical skill and tender care could do, was done for him, and there was still hope that his young life might be spared, until Sunday noon, when he was taken worse and failed rapidly till the end. All through his terrible suffering he was always hopeful and cheerful, never complaining. He was a kind and loving son and brother, and was a general favorite among the young people, always having a kind word and pleasant smile for all. The floral offerings, which were numerous and beautiful, were a silent testimony of the esteem in which he was held. The funeral attendance was large and impressive. He is survived by his father, mother, four sisters and four brothers. The sisters are Mrs. Benjamin Bellerose and Mrs. John Allair of Woodstock, N. H., Mrs. Albert Ganya of Johnson, N. H., and Miss Mary Fournier. His four brothers are George, Alfred, Thomas and Joseph, who acted as pall bearers. The remains were taken to St. Johnsbury and the funeral services were held at Notre Dame church, Wednesday morning. Interment was at Mount St. Joseph cemetery. The entire family have the heartfelt sympathy of a large circle of friends in their sad bereavement, and the loss of one who will be so sadly missed.
